

Assoc. Prof. İlyas GÖLCÜKLÜ

SETTLEMENT OF CLIMATE CHANGE –
RELATED DISPUTES IN INTERNATIONAL
COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION WITH SPECIAL EMPHASIS ON ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE
(ESG) DISPUTES

CONTENTS

PREFACE.....	IX
ABBREVIATIONS	XIX

CHAPTER

1

CLIMATE CHANGE AS A GLOBAL CHALLENGE AND THREAT TO HUMANITY

I. Introduction.....	1
A. Definition	1
B. Historical Background and Trends	2
II. Multilateral Regulatory Regime for Climate Change Disputes	4
A. The Paris Agreement	5
B. United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change – UNFCCC (1992)	9
C. Energy Charter Treaty (“ECT”).....	10

CHAPTER

2

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE (“ESG”) CONCEPT AND DISPUTES

I. Introduction.....	13
A. Definition	13
B. Importance.....	14

C. Scope	17
D. Examples of ESG-related clauses	18
II. Types of ESG Disputes	20
A. General	20
B. Categories of ESG Disputes	21
1. Cases Aimed at Changing Conduct or Policies Violating ESG Standards	22
2. Cases Aimed at Compensating for Damages Arising from Violations of ESG Standards	28
III. Main ESG-related Concepts and Disputes	31
A. Greenwashing	31
B. Corporate Social Responsibility (“CSR”) Clauses	36
C. Carbon Emissions Trading and Reducing Carbon Footprints	38
D. Environmental Warranties and Disclosures in M&A Transactions	42
IV. Potential Disputes under Turkish Climate Law No. 7552	45
A. General	45
B. New Concepts and Fines under the Turkish Climate Law	46
C. Potential Climate Change-Related Disputes under the Turkish Climate Law	47

CHAPTER

3

DISPUTE SETTLEMENT MECHANISMS FOR CLIMATE CHANGE-RELATED COMMERCIAL DISPUTES: A REGULATORY FRAMEWORK

I. Settlement Mechanisms in General	51
II. Alternative Dispute Resolution (“ADR”)	52
III. Litigation	57

A. International Court of Justice (“ICJ”).....	57
B. International Criminal Court.....	63
C. European Court of Human Rights (“ECtHR”).....	66
D. World Trade Organization (“WTO”).....	68
E. National Courts.....	71
IV. Non-compliance Mechanisms	73

CHAPTER

4

ARBITRATION AS A DISPUTE SETTLEMENT METHOD FOR CLIMATE CHANGE– RELATED DISPUTES

I. A Regulatory Framework.....	75
A. Introduction.....	75
B. Types of Arbitration.....	75
II. Advantages and Suitability of Arbitration for Climate Change– Related Disputes	83
III. Arbitrability of Climate Change–Related Disputes.....	91
A. Subjective Arbitrability of Climate Change-Related Disputes.....	92
B. Objective Arbitrability of Climate Change–Related Disputes.....	94
IV. Drafting Arbitration Agreements for Climate Change–Related Disputes.....	99
V. Expert Appointments in Arbitration for Climate Change– Related Disputes	105
A. Party-Appointed Experts	106
B. Tribunal-Appointed Experts	107
C. Key Considerations in Selecting Experts for Climate Change–Related Disputes.....	108
D. The ICC Expert Rules in the Climate Change Context	110

VI. Third-Party Funding in Arbitration for Climate Change–Related Disputes	112
VII. Dispute Boards in Arbitration for Climate Change–Related Disputes	116
VIII. Enforcement of Arbitral Awards in Climate Change–Related Disputes	119
A. General.....	119
B. The Public Policy Exception in the Enforcement of Arbitral Awards on Climate Change	123

CHAPTER
5
SETTLEMENT OF CLIMATE CHANGE-
RELATED DISPUTES THROUGH COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION IN THE SPACE LAW CONTEXT

I. Introduction.....	129
II. Dispute Resolution Methods for Space Law Disputes	133
A. Consultation	134
B. Negotiation	137
C. Mediation	138
III. Arbitration.....	140
A. General.....	140
B. Arbitration in Other Space-Related Instruments.....	142
C. The PCA Optional Rules for Arbitration of Disputes Relating to Outer Space Activities	143
D. The Turkish Approach to Arbitration in Space Law	144
E. Settling ESG Claims in Outer Space through Commercial Arbitration.....	145
IV. Conclusion.....	147

POLICY PROPOSALS FOR THE REPUBLIC OF TÜRKİYE
REGARDING CLIMATE CHANGE MITIGATION..... 149

REFERENCES..... 155

APPENDICES 177